

Valhalla Storyline: In 2018 A Family visits their fun and friendly cottage. Valhalla was bought in 1981 and the new cottage right next to Valhalla was bought too. After a long road trip, they finally arrive. The Dineen's arrive and they spotted uncle Kevin (Kevin Dineen) he showed them their rooms and later on they hung out at the beach and talked. Kevin also brought up the history of Pine hill. In his telling of the history he mentioned how back in the 1840's, a group of Irish immigrants had a horrible disease in which they would start to rot and develop horrible symptoms like coughing up blood, smelling horrible, rotten teeth the list could go on and on. Then Kevin mentioned that a group of British soldiers who had been sent as a search party to find the diseased immigrants found them and killed them, then they dumped the bodies into the lake. Then Kevin went on to say "Legend has it, the soldiers who killed them and immigrants in that group who were not diseased or killed were cursed with the horrible disease and even lost their minds and attacked British outposts and settlements..."

The zombie-like creatures were called ghouls by the town folk and they could live forever unless they were killed. So a monster hunting party went around hunting them until they were all dead... No one knows if they are all dead or not." Dad asked, "Where did you hear all of this?" Kevin replied "A book about Irish folklore." But then Kevin said that in Pine hill (the town where Valhalla is) people vanished mysteriously and people died in the 1950s and 1960s. Kevin had a crazy conspiracy that it was connected. Uncle Sean said, "It's not connected, one of those events was real, the other one you found in a book about myths and monsters."

The Dineen's went back to the cottage and then Mark "bobby lupu" came for a visit and then they partied and Kevin played "windows xp games" with Liam and Owen Dineen for a bit. It is night and now everyone is asleep. Kevin gets woken up by a strange breathing sound and looks up. He sees a scary looking figure at the end of his bed. Startled he "yells who the hell are you!" and then he rubs his eyes and looks again... But this time the mysterious figure is gone. 1 day later they discover weird things in the morning they heard shouting they heard banging Sean heard whispers at night. The Dineen's went to the town of Pine hill to eat at a restaurant. They went to a giant tiger and they came upon a ghoulish man in a trench coat he was all sweaty, grey looking, smelled like fish, rotten flesh and gasoline (he looked like a zombie in George A. Romero's night of the living dead). Sean smiled at the ghoulish man and offered him some change and then the strange man tried to grab Sean. The Dineen's stopped him. The man ran off and vanished.

Later on they went to the flea market hoping not to confront the ghoulish man but this yearly flea market was not any yearly flea market. They smelled cow manure and flies everywhere. There was hardly anyone there but they saw in the empty tent a bunch of file cabinets and computers and a vhs tape titled "Pinehill exp" Liam says in a joking way "how does a town have an expiration date?" They watched the tape. It showed someone watching Valhalla cottage then a jump cut happened and it showed uncle Kevin at the beach. When Kevin turns to the person filming he already drives away Kevin said we are being watched and uncle Sean checks out the other markets and saw a clown and said, "That's pretty unfitting for a flea market..." Then the clown starts chasing him, and the horror begins! The Dineen's get to their cars and drive back to the giant tiger. They told the employees to get the authorities. Liam asks "I need to use the bathroom." Dad says ok but I hope it does not take as long as the last time. The clerks say the phone lines are down but they were sending someone to fix them and asked the Dineen's if they had a cell phone to call them. Dad says that he forgot his phone at the cottage.

Liam finally left the crapper and when he was walking back to dad he saw a huge lineup with what looked like a clown. Liam recognized the clown, and it turned out to be the clown from the flea market. As Liam started to run the clown blew a balloon. Liam said "Whatcha gonna do with that balloon!" In a shocked expression, Dad came and saw the clown as the clown popped the balloon. Dad said " I don't know why you're following us but you better stop now or we'll get you f arrested!" The clown shrugged and made a throat slicing gesture and began to laugh hysterically. Kevin said that this whole situation was out of a horror movie until Owen said, "We should probably go back to the cottage to call the police." Sean suggests they should beat the clown and everybody started laughing.

As the Dineens were driving back to the cottage they noticed something different. People were getting in their cars and leaving, not only that but people were running and screaming. Dad comments "I guess everyone is in a hurry to get home, maybe work is starting early." When they got to the cottage they were having a good time. Everyone was having fun until the power went out. They knew they weren't alone they searched the whole area but they heard the dogs barking and they rushed to the dogs to save them and better yet themselves they find a bunch of ghouls wandering from far away they rush everyone inside Kevin says "nowhere is safe" "we must find a way out" "but how" Andrew replied Sean answers "we give them hell" they make use of every tool and weapon they prepare vehicles they distract the ghouls and monsters they check the house multiple times they pack everything up.

The sun starts to set it is almost nighttime. They run to the dock to see if there was anyone else. They see neighbors unaware of the ghouls and monsters of the night but something bigger and more monstrous is in the ocean right under the poor neighbor's canoe. Kevin and Sean try to warn them but it's too late the thing grabs the canoe and sinks it which ends in drowning and killing the neighbors. They grabbed a pellet gun, (because lethal fire arms are illegal in Canada unless you are licensed) and fired at the beast the beast tries throwing the canoe at and luckily it misses the throw.

The group runs back to everyone at the cottage and reach the cottage and rush inside. After everyone calms down they plan on destroying these ghouls and then destroying the thing in the lake. They managed to get power back on and contact authorities. The operator said that they will arrive in half an hour and that was the best they can do because all officers were dispatched in other areas of Pine hill. They gave them some advice on holding off the unidentified creatures and they also told them to stay calm and survive. Kevin hangs up the phone and says were on our own for now Sean says "that's bullshit! Let me guess they're eating donuts at a goddamn coffee shop!" Dad yells "Everyone calm down, the only way that were going to survive this is that we don't panic and take matters into our own hands." Everyone agreed. Owen suggested that they make weapons and set up traps until the cops arrived. Everybody thought this was a smart idea except for the fact that they were surrounded.

Kevin had a great idea to split up in groups and find anything useful around the house. Sean said he knew where a baseball bat was and ran to get it. As the groups went around searching for materials and useful supplies to make weapons with when suddenly a window broke in the other house and the dogs started barking and ran out the door to find the cause of the sound. Kevin shouted, "No, get back here! We have to save them." Sean didn't want to risk his life for the dogs until Kevin convinced Sean that if they got rid of whatever broke the window, they would have one less problem to worry about. So, Sean and Kevin opened the door and ran to the other cottage, killing a couple of ghouls along the way. When Sean and Kevin get to the second cottage they hear clown laughter and dogs barking. The clown is on the balcony with some kind of weapon laughing his head off. Sean tries attacking him but gets punched back! Kevin is sick of this clown's antics and sicks the dogs after the clown. The dogs start biting the clown's legs and he tries kicking them off in anger. Kevin and Sean run at the stunned clown! Kevin hits the clown with his weapon and Sean push the clown off the balcony! The clown snapped his neck on a rock when he fell, killing him.

Kevin and Sean saved the dogs, and killed the clown... That was one less thing to worry about, except for the fact that they were surrounded and heard a bloodcurdling gurgled scream. The two knew that the beast was coming. Kevin and Sean and the dogs came back to find the group with a bunch of weapons. Kevin asked if they heard the scream. All of them said yes. They needed to find a way to kill the beast. Liam suggests that they need to distract it so they could sneak attack it, Owen builds on that idea saying he can throw some of the toys at it as a distraction. Sean says that those are all good ideas but they need a way to kill it. Just then a window breaks and a couple of ghouls spill into the cottage. They hear a roar and catch a glimpse of the beast. They hear the roar become more distant then hear loud mushy stomps and the ground starts shaking. The roar becomes louder and then the beast smashes into the cottage. Dad says well we better find a way to kill it now. Uncle Sean says "I'm going to distract it, so you better have a plan to kill it before it catches up to me."

Uncle Sean runs out the door waving his baseball bat around trying to get the beasts attention. The beast noticed him and tried running toward him, uncle Sean hit him with the baseball bat making the beast even angrier. The rest of the group keep thinking of ideas until Kevin has the idea of throwing a red hot, sharp spear-like object into the beast. Everyone thinks that that is a good idea so some of the group members go outside start a fire and kill the ghouls that get in their way. As the other members take a fireplace poker put the pointy half into the fire until it is orange, attach it to a rope and hand it to dad. As uncle Sean was distracting the beast he stopped to take a breather and said, " I'm getting too old for this." Just then the beast jumped out and made a disturbing gurgled sound. Just then dad and the rest of the group started shouting trying to get the beasts' attention. The Beast looked at the group and started roaring and began to rush after them. Just then dad moved to the front of the group and threw the makeshift spear into the beast burning right through his head. The beast starts screaming and gurgling! The weapon begins to melt through him and his screams get louder. Finally, the spear burns right through his head killing him, his lifeless body falling into the lake where he belongs.

Uncle Sean thanks everybody while he is gasping for air. But there was one problem... There were still a bunch of ghouls. Liam mentioned, "Guys, we still have a big problem... There are a bunch of ghouls everywhere." Kevin picked up a paddle, checked his watch and said, "The police will hopefully be here in a couple of minutes." And dad said "Well, better get back to the cottage and fend those things off until the cops come!"

As the group fought back up to the cottage the grey man was watching in the distance. The grey man crept up to the survivors and jumped out in front of them! Sean punches him in the face and everyone gangs up on him until he gets stabbed and then pulls out a machete and makes everyone back up. Everyone notices his skin is rotting away and some worms are coming out. Liam sees a worm creep out of the grey man's nose and begins to throw up. The grey man tells his horrible backstory "I was a part of a group of fleeing immigrants. I was one of the ones who didn't have the disease. My friends and family were diseased and were killed by the British... I didn't even try to help, I just ran with the ones who weren't diseased. I left my family for dead, so I was cursed. The monster hunting parties killed the other ghouls but not me, because I was still sane. And for all of those years I suffered the curse... You won't, I will spare you from it! You won't be left to rot for eternity, you will be free!" Liam replies with "How do we stop the curse?!" and the grey man grieves "You cannot stop the curse, Pine hill will forever be shrouded with a horrible curse that I will save you from." Everyone hears the police siren. It gets closer. The ghouls walk closer to the group while the grey man is explaining his rant. The grey man then says he will put the group out of their misery so they won't be damned like him. Owen tries to run but the ghouls corner the group.

The cops exit the car. The grey man holds his machete up and says, "You will not have to suffer like me!" As the police tell him to freeze. He swings his machete barely missing cutting a bit of Sean. He yells and swears in pain. As the grey man was about to slice again the police shot him repeatedly. The police shot at the ghouls giving the group a chance to get out. Once the police were getting the group to safety the grey man came out of nowhere and killed one of the cops and said, "You will be spared!" The cops shot at him again, one shot him in the face eye and maggots came out. The shots didn't look like they were doing anything. That is when Kevin thought "Oh sh*t I forgot about the dogs." He ran back to the cottage and dad yelled "Kevin where the hell are you going!" the last cops said they were going to get back up and started to leave. Everyone started swearing at them while the grey man started chanting and saying stuff like "You won't have to suffer the burden, you will be spared." and dad said "Can you shut up about all of this you will be spared stuff!" Then he punched the grey looking man and a bit of his grey skin fell off. Meanwhile Kevin runs into the cottage seeing the dogs. He is thankful that they are still alive, but then he hears a groaning ghoul stumble around. Uncle Kevin kills that ghoul but then there are a bunch more that he can't. He runs out the door, but the monsters are still following him.

The dogs run up the trail to where the rest of the Dineens are. Some of the ghouls follow the dogs leaving Kevin stranded, which only gives him one option... The canoe. The group was at the beach running for their lives. They seem to have lost the grey man. Sean says "Oh sh where's Kevin?!" Owen says he must be at the cottage, we have to save him!" When dad says, "He went back for the dogs." Sean yells, "Why didn't you stop him!" Suddenly they see Kevin on the canoe and start yelling to get his attention. Kevin waves to them. Then they hear a loud splashing and suddenly, the grey man grabs onto the boat and tries to sink the canoe. Kevin smashes his face with the oar. The grey man flips the canoe; Kevin hangs onto the boat for dear life as the grey man tries to pull him under the water. Sean shouts "Kevin!" Kevin tries hitting the grey man with the oar again but the grey man starts drowning him. The ghouls start walking to the beach where the group is. The group starts holding them off as Sean says "Kevin I'm coming!" as he is about to dive in, until a couple of ghouls come out of the water and try attacking him. Meanwhile Kevin is fighting for his life until the grey man pulls out a knife and stabs Kevin in the shoulder... Luckily Kevin was wearing a life jacket so it protected him from the stab a bit. The grey man was going in for the final blow until Kevin quickly grabbed the oar and smashed the grey man in the face, breaking his jaw and disorienting him. Kevin thought quickly and grabbed the knife and stabbed the grey man in the eye blinding him (Since a cop shot him in his other eye) the grey man started freaking out and splashing around since he couldn't see. He couldn't swim because he was blind so he started to drown. Kevin got onto the boat and watched the grey man drown for a bit. He paddled back to the group and the ghouls didn't look like they were doing anything. Kevin said, "The last cursed one is dead, they're all following with him." as the ghouls were walking into the water... Their resting place. Owen said, "So the stories were true." Dad said, "I am never going in that water ever again. Some of the ghouls just dropped dead in front of them. The dogs started licking everyone and they heard sirens of ambulances and the police... The madness is over; the Dineens have survived against all odds. The end.
